EAST AFRICAN FARMERS' DIALOGUE

MAY 5th to 9th 2010

RESPONDING TO THE CHALLENGE OF FEEDING AFRICA

Empowering Farmers

Farming is recognized as one of the most important activities on our planet and vital for the future. By 2050 we need to double production to feed 9 billion people, limit the world's average temperature rise to 2 degrees and replace much of our fuel from renewable energy sources.

Topics for discussion-

- Africa's potential
- The role of organic farming
- Caring for the environment
- Managing our water supplies
- The importance of trees
- Climate change
- Sharing experiences
- Marketing
- Mobilizing farmers
- Energy

During the conference there will be outings to the following places farms.

- Mukono Agricultural Research Center
- Sugar cane and tea farming in Lugazi
- Indigenous and medicinal trees conservation
- Mixed farming
- A dairy farm

The Farmers' Dialogue has grown out of the commitment of working farmers on all continents.

The East African Farmers' Dialogue will take place in Uganda at Rest Gardens, Bweyogerere, 12 kms east of Kampala on the Uganda-Kenya Highway.

Delegates are asked to arrive for registration on 4th May, 2010 by 15:00 hours.

Please return the form below by April 1st and send it to the Farmers' Dialogue conference secretary Mr Andrew Mukhwana at P.O. Box 11502, Kampala, Uganda.
